

September 22, 2025: On Forgiving Trespasses of Others

Forgiveness of 'trespasses' is the forgiveness of the sins of others that are holding them into the bondage of their own sins being held against them.

This forgiveness of their sins frees oneself to choose a new path that does not result in endless retaliations, and it also allows the one being forgiven to choose a new path that does not absolutely involve revenge against them - which would require their continuing sinful behavior as their defense.

ELON: THE NOTION OF FORGIVENESS IS IMPORTANT

"I do believe that the teachings of Jesus are good and wise.

There's tremendous wisdom in Turn the other cheek.

For a while, when I was hearing that, I thought, that's really a weak thing.

The devil is using the teachings of Jesus to corrupt the thoughts of people that it perceives as 'enemies' and to corrupt the teachings of Jesus into its own way of dissolving the resolve of its opposition.

Saying 'Forgive me,' while continuing to trespass on another's land and life is a corrupt and immoral use of the concept of freeing the entire body from slavery to sin. Stop trespassing in my life. Stop corrupting the teaching of the church, and stop using Jesus to dissolve the resolve of your opposition.

We oppose the spirit that you have embodied. For so long as you continue to embody a spirit that harms us with your use of evil, I will continue to oppose you with hatred of your evil - not your body.

I couldn't care less about your person or your body. I care deeply about the spirit of the people and the spirit that we all compose. I care deeply about the spirit of the people that you are warping to your advantage through your use of technology.
